TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

THE INTENSE HEAT.

How the New Yorkers Suffer From the Heated Term.

New York, June 25.—Up to 10 o'clock this morning the record of fatal prostrations from heat is unprecedented for any June day in the history of the coroner's office. At noon the death list reached twenty, all more or less directly caused by the torrid atmosphere. Many of the victims expired without the slightest premonition of their fate. Some in the prime of life and yesterday were in the best of spirits and apparently the best of health, were corpses in their beds this morning. Children in crowded, recking tenement districts are dying of like fevers that will in the sun. Aged persons in many quarters attempt to move about in ordinary pursuits and sit down only to gasp their last. Several persons died at the breakfast table. The prostrations are very numerous.
The thermometer at 2:30 p. m. was ninety-one in the shade.

The Wedding Bells.

DALLAS, Tex., June 25.—The managers of the Texas State Fair and Dallas Exposition offer three liberal prizes, to be awarded bridal couples for their prepossessing qualities, with the provision that the marriages shall be publicly consummated on the fair grounds. Three entries have already been made, and others to the number of a score are expected.
Liberal's band will play the wedding march, and the marriage hall is to be strewn with flowers.

Satisfied With the Choice.

CHICAGO, June 25.—The members of the Oregon delegation are satisfied with the work of the convention. Mr. J. W. Cusick says: "Of choice was Gresham, because the people of Oregon wanted him nominated, but Harrison and Morton are excellent men and will suit our people in every respect. They make a strong team, and with them Oregon will roll up a larger majority for the republican ticket in November than she did for the state ticket in June." Several of our delegates will stay east for awhile.

Destructive Fire.

New York, June 25.—Fire was discovered this morning in a five-story building extending from Thirty-eight to Thirty-ninth street on First avenue and occupied as a cigar factory by several firms. The flames gained rapid headway and soon the wall fronting on First avenue fell in.
Tenants are removing from surrounding buildings.

The water supply gave out and the fire boats were summoned. If more water is not soon obtained a disastrous conflagration is certain.

There was a panic among the 1300 employees in the burning building, many of whom were girls, and several were slightly injured on the crowded fire escapes in their efforts to reach the street. The loss is $300,000.

"Penny Wise and Pound Foolish."

That's what men are who plod along—trying to do their business, when they are half dead. Their eyes are dim and throbs; their head aches; the children annoy them; their wives lose their charms; they lose their ambition; they make mistakes in their accounts, and the whole world looks blue; they hate themselves and everyone else. And why? If you feel so, why don't you stop and think a minute—or are you too stupid? Your liver and blood are out of order; that's all.
You need a good regulator and tonic.
Take a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you will feel like a new man. In three days your wife will be the prettiest and sweetest woman in the world; your children's dispositions will be exactly like your own; your business will improve, and you will make money enough to pay for the "Golden Medical Discovery" a hundred times over. Don't be stubborn, but try it.

If you suffer from "cold in the head," or from Nasal Catarrh, use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It cures whenever everything fails.

Personal.

Mr. N. H. Frohlichstein, of Mobile, Ala., writes: I take great pleasure in recommending Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consumption, having used it for a severe attack of Bronchitis and Catarrh.
It gave me instant relief and entirely cured me and I have not been afflicted since. I also beg to state that I had tried other remedies with no good result. Have also used Electric Bitters and Dr. King's New Life Pills, both of which I can recommend.

Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, is sold on a positive guarantee. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.

TWO WEDDINGS AT MENTOR.

A Double Union at the Old Garfield Home.

The marriage of Miss Mollie Garfield to J. Stanley Brown, and that of Miss Belle Mason of Cleveland to Henry Garfield, eldest son of the dead president, took place Thursday evening at the house of the family.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. V. W. Davis of Worcester, Mass., the former pastor of the Euclid Avenue Presbyterian Church of Cleveland. Both the brides were members of his congregation during his pastorate in Cleveland.

An elaborate bower of roses and smilax had been arranged in the east window of the room in which the ceremony took place. The decorations throughout the house consisted of evergreen wreaths, smilax, Marchal Neil roses, daisies and potted plants and ferns. A special train conveyed the guests from Cleveland, and a city caterer provided the menu.

The utmost secrecy was observed regarding the details of the wedding and newspaper reporters were absolutely refused any information.

At 5:30 p. m. the orchestra struck up Mendelssohn's wedding march, and Mrs. Garfield and Mrs. Mason, followed by the near members of the family, entered the room. Following them were Mr. Harry Garfield and his bride. The former was attended by James R. Garfield, Mr.
Wentworth Warren of Boston, and Mr.
Frank Baldwin of Cleveland.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Mason of Cleveland, Miss Helen Newell, Chicago, and Miss Fannie Southworth of Cleveland.

After this ceremony had been performed the second bridal party entered the room.

It consisted of Mr. Stanley Brown and his bride. The former was accompanied by Percival Farquhar of New York, L. J. Hatch of Chicago, J. J. Chickering, Washington; Irving Garfield, Mentor; and Charles Jewett, Buffalo.

The bridesmaids were Misses Mary Garfield and Minnie Garfield of Cleveland, Miss Mable Kittredge, New York; Miss Sally Foster, Cincinnati, and Miss Nell Windom of St. Paul, Minn.

The wedding supper was served directly after.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Garfield will go to northern New York on their wedding tour, and Mr. J. Stanley Brown and his bride, after a short tour in the West, leave for Europe.

Among the prominent guests present were ex-President Hayes and wife and ex-Postmaster-General James and wife.

The pretty romance which culminated to-day in the double wedding has already been fully told in The Star. J. Stanley Brown was a lifelong friend of the late President Garfield, and in the campaign which ended in the latter's election was his trusted private secretary. When it became known that Mr. Brown was engaged to marry Miss Mary Garfield, no surprise was created.

It was known that the young couple were much attached to each other. Later on, however, it was announced that an estrangement had arisen and many harsh stories were circulated in consequence. At the time both Mrs. Garfield and her daughter left abruptly for Europe and rumor had it that they did so to avoid a distasteful alliance.

Hon. James Mason, the father of Miss Belle Mason, now Mrs. Harry Garfield, was a cousin of Mrs. Garfield, and for years prior to his death was counsel for the Lake Shore railway. He was the father of three daughters, Josie, Belle and May. The two latter were educated at Miss Porter's school at Farmington, Conn. Miss Mary Garfield was also educated there; so was Nellie Grant, and between all a warm friendship and intimacy existed.

It was at the Mason homestead that Mrs. Garfield and her family found shelter when the body of the president was brought to Cleveland.
After that event the visits of the Garfield family became of frequent occurrence, and it was there that the friendship that ripened into love was first formed. Unknown to any one, they became engaged to be married, and it was a genuine surprise when the fact was announced.
